

ABILITY LEVELS

All groups are divided by ability level with additional group changes based on skills and individual goals. See below.

Intermediate

Terrain:

You ride Blue runs with confidence and want the challenge of Black runs and varied terrain.

Skills

- Working on confidence in Black terrain.
- Comfortable on simple off-piste runs or with small moguls.
- Control speed through turning on Black terrain.
- Develop existing skills on Black terrain and moguls.
- Develop safety awareness on Black and varied terrain.

Advanced

Terrain:

You ride Black runs with confidence and are looking towards developing skills on Double Black terrain.

Skills

- Refine skills in Black terrain.
- Introduction to Double Black runs.
- Develop previous skills on Double Black terrain.
- Develop safety awareness on Double Black and varied terrain.

Expert

Terrain:

You ride the entire mountain with skill and confidence. You want to explore and try new things.

Skills

- Comfortable on most Double Black terrain.
- Looking to improve technique and flow in steep terrain.
- Develop creative assessment of varied terrain and natural features.
- Develop safety awareness and assessing risk via line choice in steep terrain.